

Join us, and your fellow LTG members, for a welcome drinks reception and a bite to eat, at the newly opened Postal Museum & Mail Train, on the evening of 15th June 2018 for this year's LTG evening social event.

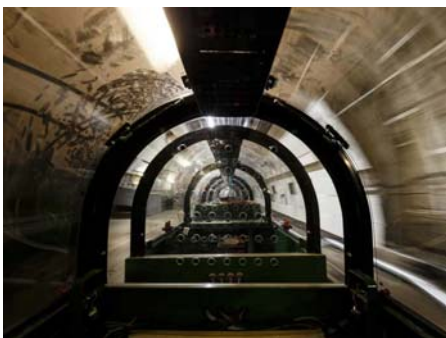

This year's event will take place at the newly opened Postal Museum. Arriving at 5:30pm, you will first enjoy a ride aboard the miniature rail train, enjoying an immersive experience along the old mail rail routes below London's street. The ride takes only 15mins and includes stops at underground stations, with commentary and visual shows. After, enjoy a complimentary drink and browse the exhibition rooms. Finally, enjoy a bite to eat from a variety of hot buffet & pizza menu. There will be plenty of opportunity to continue to look round the museum and socialise with colleagues up to 10pm.
